

NRSWA – Monitoring Signing, Lighting & Guarding (Experienced)

Course Aim

This course assesses supervisors how to monitor operatives who set up Signing, Lighting & Guarding equipment on public roads, as required by the New Roads and Streetworks Act 1991.

Supervisors must be experienced and currently employed in working on Public Highways, as this unit focuses on assessment.

Who Should Attend?

This course is for those delegates who supervise those who reinstate roadways in line with the 2nd Edition Specification for reinstatement of openings in the Highway and the New Roads and Streetworks Act 1991 (NRSWA), revised 2002 Code of Practice.

This course is best for somebody who has previous knowledge within this sector. If you do not have prior experience within the New Roads and Streetworks working sector, the novice course is highly recommended.

New Roads and Street Works (NRSWA) training is compulsory for anyone who may be involved in working on and adjacent to the public highways.

Pre-Requisites: The minimum entry requirement is a good understanding of spoken and written English.
