

Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace - City & Guilds

Course Aim

This industry leading course will provide delegates with an understanding of the importance of health, safety and welfare standards in the workplace; giving knowledge of accident prevention methods to include risk assessment.

Who Should Attend?

This course is for any delegates in a work environment and will ensure that all delegates are aware of their own safety.

It is a legal requirement for employers to provide health and safety training to employees.

Course Duration

This is a 1 day course.

Certification

Delegates successfully completing the course will receive a City & Guilds Award in Health and Safety in the workplace.

Agenda

This course covers the following:

- Understanding the principles of health and safety
- Accident prevention
- Ability to contribute to any health and safety management system
- Importance of risk assessment as a technique for accident and ill health prevention
- Responsibilities placed on employers and employees
- Hazard, risk and main causes of harm to workers
- The importance of following systems, procedures and rules
- How individual action can reduce risks to health and safety
- Appreciate how workplace equipment and task design affect health and safety
- Multiple-choice examination

