

City & Guilds - Fire Warden

Course Aim

This course is designed to provide an understanding and awareness of the hazards associated with fire and the duties required to perform the role of fire warden in a safe and effective manner. It also presents an insight into general fire precautions and associated regulations.

Who Should Attend?

This course is suitable for those who are required to have designated responsibility for workplace fire safety and those wanting to develop their basic fire safety awareness in order to assist in managing workplace fire risk.

Course Duration

This is a 1-day course.

Certification

Delegates successfully completing the course will be issued with a Certification by C&G after 28 days, which is valid for 3 years.

Requirements

In order to attend this training course good written and spoken English is required.

Agenda

- Fire statistics & fire related incidents
- Legislation and regulations
 - Health & Safety at Work Act
 - Management of Health & Safety at Work
 - Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order
- Fire characteristics, fire spread and common causes
- Health effects from exposure to heat, smoke and oxygen deficiency
- Structural, electrical and fuel hazards
- Fire risk assessment and control methods
 - Preventative
 - Passive
 - Active
 - Managerial
- Fire Classification
- Extinguishers, fire control and detection
- Principles of fire safety - raising the alarm, evacuation and escape plan
- The Role of the Fire Warden
- Theoretical Assessment

City & Guilds

Safety / Value / Availability / Support